PREFACE.

BROOKLINE is believed to have been the first town in the Commonwealth to avail itself of the General Statute authorizing towns and cities to raise and appropriate money for founding and maintaining public libraries. At the annual town-meeting, on March 16, 1857, this subject was introduced, under an article in the warrant, and referred to a committee, consisting of Messrs. E. A. Dana, Abijah W. Goddard, Samuel Philbrick, G. F. Homer, and Charles Follen. This committee reported at the adjourned annual town-meeting, on March 30, 1857: and, upon their recommendation, the town promptly voted to establish a Public Library, and appropriated for its foundation and commencement the sum of nine hundred and thirty-four dollars, — being at the rate of one dollar for each of the ratable polls in the town in the year preceding; and, for its maintenance and increase during the current year, two hundred and thirty-three dollars, — being at the rate of twenty-five cents per ratable poll. These sums were all that could be legally raised by taxation for this purpose. A suitable place was provided, and other preliminary arrangements were made, so that the Public Library was opened for the delivery of books to the citizens of the town, on Dec. 2, 1857. The Library then contained about nine hundred volumes; but, with an annual increase of nearly one thousand volumes, it now contains more than seven thousand five hundred volumes. And, instead of occupying one room as when first opened, it now occupies four rooms. Half the books have been procured through the generosity of individual citizens, who have made donations in books or money: the remainder have been purchased with money appropriated by the town; and the annual appropriations of the town for the maintenance and increase of the Library have been all that it was authorized to make by the laws of the Commonwealth, — being, at the rate of fifty cents per ratable poll, about five hundred and fifty dollars per annum. The books purchased possess, in general, a standard value, and have been selected with great care, both with reference to the demands of those now reading them, and with reference to making the Library an influential and permanent institution of the town.

It will be noticed from the catalogue, that, in some departments of the Library, there are as yet few works. We would particularly mention mathematics, grammar, geography, and theology. Scarcely any purchases have been made for the department of theology: the works belonging to the Library in this department have been received by gift. These departments in due time will undoubtedly receive their proper attention.

The following catalogue of the Library is the third which has been compiled. It is hoped, the method of arrangement adopted, though differing from that of the previous catalogues, will offer still greater advantage to those who use the Library, and afford, at the same time, an easy method of finding a book. It is, to a great extent, a treble index; giving the book under author and title, and under its subject. A knowledge of either will generally insure the finding a work of which one may be in search. There are books, whose author's name does not appear, and others which cannot be classified, — such books have been entered but once or twice. Nearly every entry has been reduced to a single line; such words of the title being retained as were thought to afford the best key to the book. The figures in the margin, at the right of the title, indicate the alcove and shelf where the book is placed. The Library, from its commencement, has been open to the public, on the afternoons and evenings of Tuesday and Friday; but it is hoped, that, during the coming season, it may be opened upon at least three days in each week. Upon these days, books can be taken out, or examined, according to the Rules, — a copy of which is hereto added. Books of reference, and others, which, by vote of the trustees, cannot be taken from the Library, will be designated by the Librarian.

During the last year, there have been delivered from the Library, nineteen thousand two hundred and six volumes to about one thousand one hundred persons. The public interest in the Library has been constantly increasing from its foundation; and with additional accommodations, which may be anticipated, it cannot be doubted that it will fully meet the views of its projectors and present patrons.

RULES AND REGULATIONS

OF THE

PUBLIC LIBRARY OF BROOKLINE,

Adopted by the Inhabitants at the Annual Town-Meeting,

MARCH 25, 1861.

PREAMBLE.

THE town of Brookline agrees to hold and manage, for the use of its inhabitants, any devise, bequest, or donation it may receive and accept for the establishment, increase, or maintenance of its Public Library.

RULES AND REGULATIONS.

CHAPTER I.

Of the Board of Trustees, and their Powers and Duties.

ARTICLE I. — There shall be a Board of Twelve Trustees, four of whom shall be elected by ballot annually, at the annual town-meeting, to hold office for three years thereafter, or until their successors shall be chosen, and qualified to act. The Trustees chosen at the annual meeting in the year 1860, shall, at their first regular meeting, divide themselves by lot into three classes. Those of the first class shall hold office until their successors shall be elected, at the annual town-meeting, in the year 1861; those of the second class shall hold office until their successors shall be elected, at the annual town-meeting, in the year 1862; and those of the third class shall hold office until their successors shall be elected, at the annual town-meeting, in the year 1863.

Art. II. — The officers of the Board of Trustees shall consist of a President, Secretary, Treasurer, and Librarian; all of whom shall be members of the Board, except the Secretary and Librarian, who may be appointed by the Board, at such compensation as they shall determine; the same to be paid from the appropriation for town-officers.

Art. III. — The Board of Trustees shall hold regular meetings on the third Tuesday of every month, except August.

Art. IV. — The President shall call a special meeting of the Board at the written request of any two members, provided such request shall state the object of the proposed meeting; and he may at any time call a special meeting, at his own discretion. All meetings shall be seasonably notified by the Secretary in writing.

Art. V. — The Standing Committee of the Board shall consist of three members each, and shall be as follows: viz., 1. The Committee on the Library; 2. The Committee on Accounts and Finances. And they shall at all times be under the control and direction of the Board.

It shall be the duty of the Committee on the Library, —

First, To recommend to the Board, from time to time, such books as it may be desirable to purchase or exchange.

Second, To make such purchases and exchanges of books as the Board may authorize.

Third, To direct in regard to the binding and covering of books, and their preparation for circulation.

Fourth, To determine, subject to the sanction of the Board, what books shall be used only for reference; and to impose such other restriction on the use of the books as in their judgment may be expedient, subject to the sanction aforesaid.

Fifth, Annually, in the month of February, to make an examination of the Library, and prepare, for the adoption of the Board, a report of the condition of the Library, to be presented to the town at the annual meeting.

Sixth, To see that the rules and regulations relative to the Library are complied with.

Seventh, To see that proper books and forms are prepared for the use of the Librarian.

Eighth, To superintend the preparation and printing of such catalogues of the books in the Library as the Board may direct.

Ninth, To have the general charge and direction of the Library-rooms.

It shall be the duty of the Committee on the Accounts and Finances, —

First, To examine all bills against the Library, and, if correct, to approve the same.

Second, To employ such means as they may deem best to obtain donations in money and books for the increase of the Library: all money thus received to be paid over to the Treasurer, and by him passed to the credit of the Library-fund, to be appropriated at the order of the Board.

ART. VI. — At the first regular meeting in April, the officers and Standing Committees of the Board shall be chosen by ballot; and they shall respectively continue to hold office till their successors are appointed. In case of any vacancy occurring during the year, it may be filled at any regular meeting.

ART. VII. — Four members of the Board shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business; and any number more than one may adjourn a meeting, when a quorum is not present.

ART. VIII. — No book, pamphlet, work of art, or other object whatsoever, offered by any person to the Library, shall be accepted and placed therein, except by express vote of the Board, unless by direction of the town; and immediate notice of acceptance shall then be given to the donor, with a suitable acknowledgment.

ART. IX. — All books, pamphlets, and articles in the Public Library may be exchanged at any time at the discretion of the Trustees for the time being; provided, however, that books, pamphlets, and articles presented to the Library shall not be disposed of, except with the consent of the donor, or his or her oldest heir-at-law.

CHAPTER II.

Of the Use of the Library.

ART I. — Any inhabitant of the town of Brookline, who shall sign an obligation to observe all the existing Rules and Regulations of the Library and all that may be subsequently adopted, shall have free right to take books therefrom, so long as he or she shall comply with the same.

Art. II. — No person shall be allowed more than one volume, and no family of the same household shall be allowed more than three volumes, at any one time. Books may be kept out of the Library fourteen days only; provided always that any book may be renewed once to the same person, but not more than once, until it shall have remained in the Library one full Library-day. The fine for the retention of any volume over the time above specified shall be two cents for every day it is so retained. The provisions of this article are subject to the discretionary power conferred upon the Committee on the Library by art. 5, chap. 1.

Art. III. — Any book retained two weeks beyond the time prescribed by these regulations shall be sent for by the Librarian; and the expense incurred in obtaining it shall be paid by such delinquent.

Art. IV. — All injuries to books beyond a reasonable wear, and all losses, shall be made good to the satisfaction of the Committee on the Library by the person liable; and any book not returned within one week after demand made for it by the Librarian shall be regarded as lost. If any book be lost, the person for whose use it was taken out shall pay such a sum as the said Committee shall determine, or replace the book; or, if it be one of a set, he or she shall pay the price of the set, and take the remaining volumes, if the said Committee shall so determine.

Art. V. — All books are required to be returned to the Library fourteen days before the annual examination, under penalty of a fine of one dollar; but seasonable notice of the time shall be given by the Librarian.

Art. VI. — No person having a book from the Library shall lend it to a person not a member of the same household; and no person owing a fine or forfeiture shall receive books from the Library until the same is paid.

Art. VII. — Every person desiring to take books from the Library for home use shall receive from the Librarian a printed card, on which the book asked for shall be designated, also the number of the shelf on which it stands, in blanks left for the purpose; and this card, which will be presented to the Librarian as the only mode of obtaining any book which may be asked for, will be retained until the book shall be returned by the borrower.

Art. VIII. — Books of reference, and those deemed by the Board unsuitable for general circulation, shall not be lent, except by an order signed by at least two of the Trustees.

Art. IX. — All persons visiting the Library-rooms will be required to demean themselves quietly, and to avoid all unnecessary conversation in the rooms. Any person abusing the privileges of the Library by improper or offensive conduct will be denied admission to the rooms.

Art. X. — The Library-rooms shall be open for the use and delivery of books at such times as the Committee of the Library shall designate, but not less frequently than on two afternoons and evenings of every week.

Chapter III.

Of the Librarian and his Duties.

Art. I. — The Librarian, under the direction of the Committee on the Library, shall have the charge and superintendence of all the rooms of the Public Library, and shall be responsible for the due care and keeping of all the books and other public property contained in them.

Art. II. — He shall be present in the Library in person, or by an assistant, during such times as it may be open to the public; and perform all such duties, under the direction of the Board, as are usually incumbent upon a Librarian.

Art. III. — He shall arrange all the books on the shelves in an order convenient for use; and shall enter, in a record to be kept for that purpose, the time when each book was received; its cost, if purchased; the name of its donor, if given; and any other facts relating to it which the Board may direct: such record to be called the "Catalogue of Accessions."

Art. IV. — He shall prepare such catalogues, books, and forms as the Committee on the Library may direct.

Art. V. — He shall acknowledge all gifts to the Library as soon as they shall have been reported to the Board and accepted; first procuring the signature of the President to each acknowledgment he may make.

Art. VI. — He shall keep a careful record of all such books as are asked for and are not in the Library, and of the names of the persons asking for them; and exhibit the same to the Committee on the Library, whenever it shall be called for.

Art. VII. — He shall cause a book-plate to be securely fastened in each volume belonging to the Library, — noting on it the date of the book's reception; the name of the donor, if it be a gift; the number of the shelf on which it is kept; and the number it may bear on the Catalogue of Accessions.

Art. VIII. — He shall cause every volume, before it is delivered from the Library, to be neatly covered with suitable paper, and to have attached to it such Rules of the Library as are needful to be known by those who may use it; but he shall permit no book to be used or taken until it shall have been entered in the Catalogue of Accessions.

Art. IX. — He shall annually, at the discretion of the Committee on the Library, call in all books that are out, and prepare for examination the books and other property of the Library under his control; and shall, at the same time, make and present to the Committee on the Library a detailed report of its condition and increase during the year.
